

NON-PROFIT DEVELOPMENT INTERNSHIP

Internship Description: Partners for World Health is looking for undergraduate, graduate students or recent graduates who have excellent oral and written skills, are able to communicate effectively, are well organized, able to work independently, have a positive attitude, and enjoy collaborating with a team in a dynamic work environment.

The internship program is designed to provide students with an educational experience that complements their academic studies. Interns will have an opportunity to participate in the daily work and operations of a nonprofit from a development standpoint.

As a Development Intern, your internship could lead you to work on projects and tasks such as:

- Assisting in the cultivation and solicitation of major and planned gifts by coordinating with the President, Director of Operations, and Board of Directors under the direction of the Development and Communications Manager to manage a portfolio of 25-50 major or planned giving prospects.
- Research prospective donors.
- Build, track, and support donation increases
- Track communications with donors
- Debrief with Staff and Committee Members
- Assist in developing proposals
- Create and support intimate cultivation events to steward prospects and donors
- Assists in identifying Foundation Prospects, builds a calendar of Letter of Intent and Solicitation due dates, research trustees and PWH board connections.

Qualifications:

- Undergraduate, graduate students or recent graduates
- Creative and thinks outside the box
- Numerate & analytical
- Has strong critical thinking skills
- Skilled using spreadsheets
- Familiar with databases
- Strong written and verbal communication
- Attention to detail
- Ability to multitask in a fast-paced environment
- Well-organized, with a demonstrated ability to proactively complete tasks with minimal supervision

- Ability to coordinate and prioritize multiple projects simultaneously
- Strong work ethic and commitment to at least 16 hours per week
- Passion for the PWH mission

Commitment:

The internship runs from late September 2022 - December 2022 (dates are flexible according to your term schedule).

Must be available to work a minimum of 16 hours a week.

This is an unpaid, in-person, internship located at 40 Walch Drive, Portland, Maine.

Application:

Applications are considered on a rolling basis until August 1, 2022. Apply early for best consideration!

Submit a cover letter and resume to Calshir Richerson (Calshir@partnersforworldhealth.org)